

CALL FOR AWARD NOMINATIONS

FLORIDA 2020 WORKSHOP

RECOGNIZING EXCELLENCE, CELEBRATING ACHIEVEMENTS

Inspirational people and exceptional programs are the foundation of the annual NAHMMA awards. You know that you have amazing programs and often don't take enough credit for those initiatives.

We can't have awards without you! It's time to submit all of the amazing work that you've done this year.

POSSIBLE FLORIDA AWARD TOPICS:

Community Service

To recognize the program that goes beyond inspections and HHW collection to do community outreach.

Doug Nelson Outstanding Service Award

To recognize individuals or organizations that have done a great deal for the NAHMMA Chapter.

HHW Program of the Year

To recognize the most outstanding or most improved HHW Program.

Longstanding Program Excellence

For programs that have been in service for 20 years or more and have consistently gone above and beyond to help their community and this profession.

Most Inspiring Member

To recognize a member that has been an inspiration for our organization.

Innovative Partnerships

To recognize partnerships between companies, government agencies, non-profit groups and political entities that have worked together to accomplish a goal that is supportive of the NAHMMA mission.

SQG Program of the Year

To recognize the most outstanding or most improved SQG Program.

P2 Award

To recognize an individual or organization for outstanding service in promoting pollution prevention.

Believe It or Not!?

To recognize the most unusual or dangerous item received at an HHW or CESQG collection service.

Training Program of the Year

To recognize a training program that encompasses hazardous materials/waste training and education in the SQG and HHW profession.

Future Ambassador

To recognize a person that is new to the SQG or HHW Program (within the last few years) that shows great potential in the growth of their program.

Best Exhibitor Award

To recognize the best exhibitor as decided by the workshop attendees. Voting will take place at the workshop and announced at the awards luncheon. Nominations will not be accepted prior to the workshop. All exhibitor participants will be eligible to win this award.

President's Award
